Trainings Terms & Conditions: Credit Card payment must be received 20 business days before start of course. No space is confirmed until payment is received. Cancellations made less than 10 business days before the course starts will have a cancellation fee of 50% of the total cost of the course. Amount paid will not be refunded for cancellations made less than 5 business days before the course starts or for "No-Shows". PLEASE NOTE THAT WE WELCOME AND ENCOURAGE SUBSTITUTIONS. Some of our courses consist of multiple, interdependent class sessions. Much of the learning in these courses is based on group interaction and implementing tools and methods between class sessions. Transfers among class sessions in different course series is costly and dilutes the learning. If an exception is made for an emergency, a $500 fee will apply. VibrAnalysis reserves the right to cancel or postpone any course. If a course is cancelled or postponed, VibrAnalysis liability is limited to the return of the enrollment fee.
